2018 Most Excellent Session report

Our 135th bi-annual Most Excellent Session and banquet was held on February 3rd at the Radisson Hotel in Trevoise PA. This was the first time in 8 years that we had the banquet and the Session on the same day and it was a huge success. The proposed by-law change passed with ninety five percent of those in attendance voting in favor of it. Patrick Ennis was sworn in as the newest MEMA. PMEMA David Szafran thanked everyone for the support they had given him over the past two years. All of the newly elected Most Excellent Officers and Directors wish to thank our membership for their support. The banquet was well attended by our members and everyone enjoyed the hospitality room that had a bit of Eagles flare in it. It was great to see so many Artisans come out to participate in this great fraternal event.

ARTISAN'S AMERICAN LEGION POST 120

A partial re-write from the American Legion Magazine

While it's good to be lucky, you don't need to be lucky to be good. That is especially true when it comes to managing your money and charting your course to financial freedom. It's highly unlikely, but financial security could come in the form of a lotto win, or an unexpected heirloom you find at a local garage sale. Don't pin your hopes on something like that happening. Instead create your own luck. Here are a few ways of doing it, and you won't need a lucky clover or leprechaun to make them work for you.

1. Move money to the top of your agenda. In other words, have a regular purposeful money plan (insurance or a small nest egg).
2. Command your day to day finances. Luck should have nothing to do with who's in charge of your finances.
3. Construct a solid wall against the unexpected. When was the last time you up-dated your legal documents or put money aside for the unexpected?
4. Seize time as your ally. I'm blessed to spend a lot of time with service members and their spouses who are just starting their financial lives. We talk about anything that could happen and how to plan for it.

It's time to stop hoping for something good to happen and make it happen.

The American Legion Post meets every other month, starting in January, on the second Friday of the month on the 2nd floor of the Artisan Hall. The Artisan Hall is located at 8100 Roosevelt Blvd. Philadelphia PA. Our meeting starts at 7 PM.

Fraternally yours;
Ronald Davis

The importance of having insurance throughout your entire life

In the last few years we have all sat down and watched or listened to the news as they reported on some tragic event involving a younger person who has met an untimely death in the prime of their life. Many of these incidents happen while these people were out just relaxing, doing their job at work or just going to school. Each time I hear of a tragic event, especially those involving a child, I think about the parents, grandparents and other family members who are left behind to cope with the death of a loved one and their need to pick up the pieces so, hopefully, they can move on. Maybe it is the faster pace of society, the twenty four hour news cycle or the flash speed of the internet and it's ability to report these events at a quicker pace than was available just ten years ago but these tragic events seem to be happening at a more regular pace.

Many times there has to be a fund raiser to help the family cope with the financial burdens that are brought on by the unexpected death of a child. There are so many unfortunate cases that we hear about where the family goes into heavy debt because of the expense of a funeral. Not only does the family suffer the pain and loss of the loved one but the financial stresses and burdens that having to pay for a funeral can add to this tragedy. Many times it takes the family many years to pay off the loans that were needed to cover cost of the funeral and burial.

As Artisans we have always taken care of members, especially the Juniors, with reasonably priced insurance products. Our Juvenile term policies run until age 25 and give the individual $10,000 in coverage. Our term and whole life policies are the perfect price for any age if you are looking for insurance to cover the cost of a burial or estate taxes. More important the Artisans have always been there to help and support it's members with not just monetary aid but by also offering the caring hand of fraternal friendship during their time in need.

Do your friends and family a favor, mention that you are a member of the Artisans and just don't tell them about all the great activities we offer but also mention our insurance products and the importance of having enough insurance for the peace of mind and financial security it can give a family when they need it most.

The Artisans have been around since and 1873 and our goal has always been to assist the average working person and their family with not just monetary but fraternal support. Remember, "We're not just an insurance company but we are a fraternal benefit society that treats you like family".

Artisans Order of Mutual Protection

OVERVIEW

Whole Life Policy

For Those 50 Plus

An Artisan term or whole life policy is an affordable and smart way of helping plan for funeral and estate expenses that can be incurred by a family when a loved one passes on.

The average funeral is over $10,000 and most people wind up paying for this and many other estate expenses and taxes out of their pockets.

This policy is a good way of making sure that many expenses such as funeral, tax payments and other estate expenses can be taken care of by an Artisan insurance policy.
